Benefits for the whole school community

mls

Track your Child's Reading Progress

View their past loans and what they are currently reading

Online Access to the School Library

From any computer, iPhone, iPad, smartphone or tablet

Multilingual

Multiple language capabilities useful for children and parents who do not have English as their first language

Wish List

Use the iMLS app to check which books the school library have in stock before you buy the titles for your children

eBooks

Access free eBooks to read with your child at home

"Who Next?"

Help your child pick their next book with the help of "Who Next" which recommends books based on what they have previously read, looking at similar authors/genres

Write Reviews

Review books from home and give a star rating. A great feature for developing literacy and writing skills

WebLinks

Access pre-approved, curriculum relevant and safe websites from home

Behind the Bookshelf

Share the experience of watching a wide range of video clips of authors talking about books with your child

Produce Video Reviews

A fun and interesting way of getting involved with your child's reading progress

Benefits for the whole school community

mls

iMLS App

Meets pupils technology expectations – apps for iPhone, iPad, smartphones and tablets

Designed to excite and interest pupils about their library and reading

Build Online Search Skills

Pupils can learn how to search the library catalogue by keyword to help with their homework and research

Behind the Bookshelf

Access to a world of virtual author visits through author videos

WebLinks

Thousands of pre-approved curriculum relevant and safe websites added to the catalogue

eBooks

eBook content available for pupils to access from smart phones, iPads and tablets

Reviews

Pupils can write a book review and give a star rating. A great feature for developing literacy and writing skills. They can even add video reviews

Wish List

Pupils can request books not currently in the library via the iMLS app, an excellent way to see the popular books pupils want to read

Self Service

Pupils can borrow and return their own books, giving them the feeling of ownership of the library

User Friendly Interface

Search facilities to suit pupils of all ages and encourage independent learning

"Who Next?"

An automatic list of recommended reads. Helps pupils to pick similar books and authors to ones they have already enjoyed

Access From Home

Write or film reviews. Search the library to find and reserve books from home

Benefits for the whole school community

mls

Reporting

School Inspection, Top Readers, Most Popular and Never Borrowed Books and Stock Value reports. Track reading progress by monitoring trends across the whole school

Encourages Parental Engagement

Parents can monitor their child's reading progress and assist with writing reviews

Raise the profile of your library

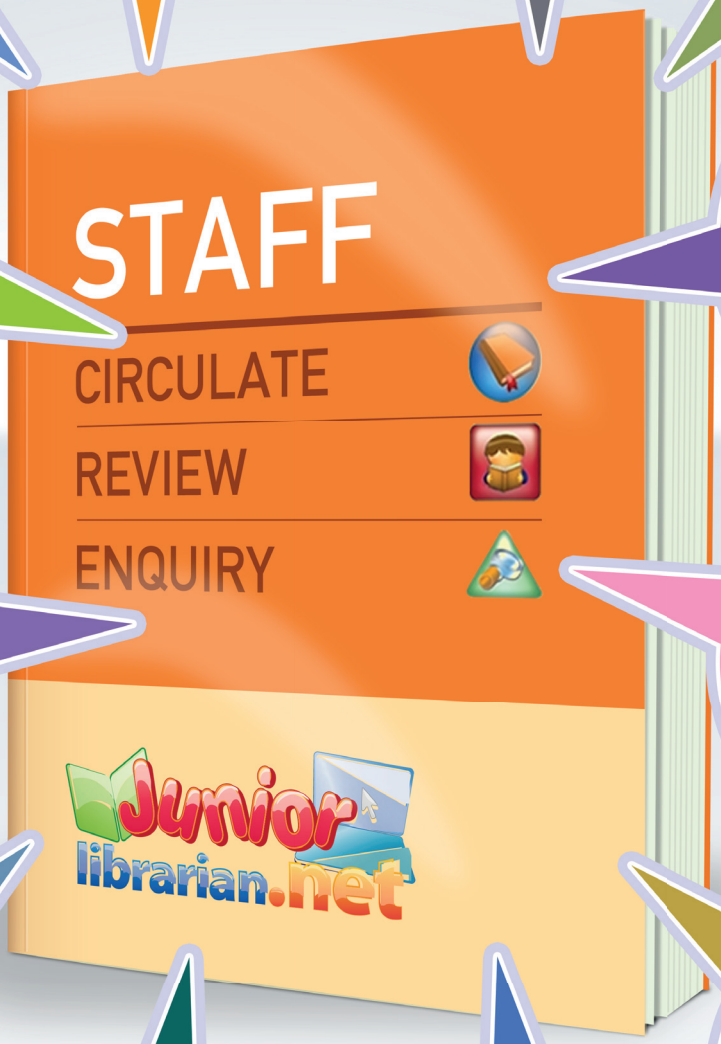
Place a hyperlink to Junior Librarian.net on your school website to promote library access from home

Behind the Bookshelf

Access to a world of virtual author visits through author videos

Nominate Pupil Librarians

Develop confidence and responsibility encouraging independent learning



Easy to Use Interface

Exciting ways to engage pupils while they search for books, write reviews and navigate around the library system

Community Reporting

View the most popular authors and titles for girls and boys across all Junior Librarian.net users in other schools

Catalogue Enrichment

Automatically provides book details and images, enhancing your search results with eBooks, weblinks and author video clips

Integrates with Complimentary Systems

School MIS, Accelerated Reader and ClickView

MLS Dashboard

Statistical infomation at your fingertips. See how many students are using the library and compare reading by gender

Develop Information Literacy & Research Skills

Encourage pupils to search for books using keywords

Integrated Access to the Bookshop

Exclusive discounts on all your book requirements for fiction and curricular titles